Partner benefits are extended to dependents of qualified employees. Dependents who may benefit from family tuition savings include: spouse, biological child, stepchild, legally adopted child, child for whom the employee is a court appointed guardian, child of a domestic partner, and adoptive or biological parents of the eligible employee. Dependents are also defined as a domestic partner in a committed long-term relationship. Neither party can be legally married to other individuals.

¹At the time of application to the next credential level, an evaluation of qualifying transfer credit will occur and the most beneficial outcome will be applied. Future programmatic changes could impact the application of credits to a future program. Refer to the academic catalog for details.

²Your employer may provide Education Assistance Benefits (EAB) (i.e. tuition reimbursement, tuition assistance, etc.) to eligible employees. Employees should reach out to their employer for more information. DeVry does not manage EAB programs, nor can we directly advise on the eligibility, process, benefit amounts or restrictions.
